

Want to dive deep into the world’s second-largest barrier reef?
Here’s a suggested itinerary to help you see just some of the best dive spots Belize has to offer.

DIVING: DAY ONE

Arrive in Belize City in the afternoon, take the San Pedro ferry (1.5 hours) or a quick flight (15 minutes) to Caye Caulker. Get settled in to your place, explore San Pedro and grab some authentic Belizean food.

DIVING: DAY TWO

Take all day to dive in and explore the Great Blue Hole with a guide. Return early evening and take in all the sights, sounds and tastes of San Pedro.

DIVING: DAY THREE

Take a guided trip and dive at Turneffe Atoll. Return early afternoon and take it easy the rest of the day.

DIVING: DAY FOUR

Take an early flight to Placencia. Do an all-day reef dive at Silk Cayes. Stay for the night and explore the local beach-front restaurants, gelato and Placencia sidewalk.

DIVING: DAY FIVE

Take an early flight back from Placencia to Belize City and fly home from there.
